Every Learner Matters: Sharing Experiences from the World Bank’s programs on Disability-Inclusive Education

Global Disability Summit 2022: Side Session

Thursday, February 17, 2022
6:30 a.m. (EST) | 12:30 p.m. (CET)

Registration

Aligning with the commitment made at the last Global Disability Summit to ensure disability-inclusion of all education projects by 2025, the World Bank will present progress on the activities supported by two trust funds, the Inclusive Education Initiative (IEI) and the USAID Disability-Inclusive Education in Sub-Saharan Africa program.

The presentation will highlight how these activities are enabling inclusive education planning, project financing, technical assistance, knowledge development, innovations, and stakeholder engagement to promote inclusive education for learners with disabilities.

International Sign and captioning will be provided.

MODERATOR

Priscille Geiser
Program Director
International Disability Alliance (IDA)

SPEAKERS

Charlotte McClain-Nhlapo
Global Disability Advisor
World Bank

Koli Banik
Senior Education Advisor
USAID
Dr. Mwenya N. Mwamba
Principal Education Officer
Special Education
Ministry of Education, Zambia

Dr. Chioma Ohajunwa
University Lecturer
Stellenbosch University

Shinsaku Nomura
Senior Economist
World Bank

Elaine Green
Head of Influencing, Campaigns, and Affairs
Leonard Cheshire

Mónica Alexandra Cortés Avilés
Regional Consultant Latin America
Inclusion International’s Inclusive Education Initiative